DOG HAD RABIES

Animal Which Bit Smith and Stewart Children Found to Be Victim of Hydrophobia—Boys Will Be Given Pasteur Treatment.

That the collie dog, which bit Leo Stewart and David Smith Monday, was afflicted with hydrophobia, was learned yesterday upon examination of the spinal column and brain of the animal. Dr. A. H. Dollear of the State Hospital at Kankakee, is and uncle of the Smith child, and telegraphed asking that some of the spinal fluid be sent to him to be examined in the Research Laboratory of the State hospital. Dr. C. M. Scott at once complied with the request and Dr. Dollear sent a telegram in the afternoon stating that there was positive proof that the dog had rabies.

The report coming from a state institution was entirely unprejudiced and the only course of action is to have the children immunized from the dreadful disease. Mrs. Emma Smith will leave for Chicago tonight with her son and the Stewart child and they will be given treatment at the Pasteur Institute.

ALL OF THE MUSIC OF ALL THE WORLD

The above expression covers the ground exactly. If not in the lead they are not anywhere. But they are in the lead, and keep so by being first in everything. This is the policy of the widely known firm of Andre & Andre, the extensive home outfitters of Jacksonville.

Andre & Andre now announce that they have added to their numerous lines the agency for the Columbia Disc Graphophone and Grafonola, the most perfect of all instruments for the reproduction of vocal and instrumental music of the world's artists. There will now be open to the music lovers of Jacksonville and vicinity a world of musical enjoyment, hitherto unobtainable.

Andre & Andre will carry in stock a full line of the Columbia company's celebrated models, and records by such well known artists as Norlick, Garden, Nielsen, Desclaux, Sammarco, Cavallieri and many others, as well as of the popular music of the day.

The superiority of the Columbia instruments, particularly the new hornless, is an established fact, and music lover should lose no time in calling at the store of Andre & Andre, north side square, where a demonstration of these beautiful instruments will be gladly given.

The Wednesday class will meet today with Mrs. W. A. Baeroff.

WILL USE ANTI-TOXIN.
Secretary J. A. Egan of the state board of health has sent to the State School for the Deaf a quantity of anti-toxin for the purpose of immunizing a number of the children. A case with symptoms of diphtheria developed at the school and it was thought best to secure the anti-toxin as a preventative measure.

This is a good time to own a dress suit. You can find them at Tomlinson's.

ENRIGHT'S TRIAL BEGINS.
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—Four witnesses were heard to day in the first day's taking of testimony in the trial of Maurice Enright, charged with the murder of Vincent Altman. Enright is a labor organizer and alleged labor slinger.

Arnold Warner and Norman Goldstein, bell boys in the hotel in which the shooting of Altman occurred, testified that they saw Enright, run from the barroom of the hotel a moment after they heard two shots fired. Both agreed that Enright was seized by John J. Brittain, a contractor, but later was released.

The other witnesses heard were Dr. Warren Hunter, coroner's physician, who performed the autopsy of the body of Altman, and Policeman William H. Dugan, who accompanied Altman to a hospital.

HAS STRONG DEGREE TEAM.
The Winchester Times of recent date had the following to say regarding the Odd Fellow lodge of that place, which will have a large representation at the meeting here today: "Pioneer lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., of this city, while one of the oldest lodges in the state, is also one of the most progressive and up-to-date. They have one of the best degree teams in this section but the work has been a drawback of late owing to the fact that while they had a splendid piano, yet had no one who attended regularly, to play it. Realizing that they must have music, the lodge has purchased of T. C. Hill, one of his very best player pianos, and now the boys know they will have music every night."

REVIVAL AT WAVERLY.
The revival services, which are being conducted in the Christian church at Waverly under the leadership of Evangelist Charles H. Bloom, are drawing large crowds each night. On Sunday night Mr. Bloom preached to a congregation from all churches in all parts. Evangelist Bloom conducts his work along sane sensible lines. He deplores the sensational methods so often in use among evangelists and the Waverly pastors enthusiastically endorse his work there.

IS IMMENSE BUILDING.
The Engineering Record contains an illustration of the immense building which has recently been erected in New York by the Woolworth Co. ## MUST ANSWER THEFT

Boys Who Stole Horses and Wagons
Are in Custody—Seem Unconcerned About Future.

With the request that they be taken to the county jail for the night, Luther Decker, aged 13 years, and Orie Smith, aged 11, who are charged with the theft of two horses, a wagon, buggy and other miscellaneous articles, were locked up in the city prison Tuesday night by Chief of Police Davis. At the city bastille the prisoners sleep on the bare floor, while at the county jail cots are furnished. Decker, who although of a youthful age, has been in the local courts a number of times and knowing the difference in the two prisons, objected to sleeping on a hard floor with the words, "Take us down to Rogers."

Arrested Near Bluffs.

The boys were arrested early Tuesday morning near Bluffs by Constable Sawyer. Seeing the boys with such a collection of property the constable took them in on suspicion and after he had questioned them he found out that they were wanted here and immediately notified the local police. Officer Trahey was sent to Bluffs at 10:21 o'clock Tuesday morning for the boys, but before he arrived it seems that Constable Sawyer had been warned by a local party that there was a reward of $75 offered for the capture of the lads, and not to let them go until it was paid. Acting on this information the constable refused to turn the boys over to the police and Officer Trahey returned to this city about noon.

Upon learning of this action on the part of the constable A. C. Read, president of the A. H. T. A. which organization had offered the reward, and Charles Degen, a member of the prosecuting committee of the city, went to Bluffs Tuesday afternoon and settled the question of the reward. Officer Trahey went back to Bluffs at 5:11 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and returned with the boys at 8:23 o'clock last night.

Seem Unconcerned.

When they were taken to the police station Chief Davis questioned them as to their thefts and where they had been since leaving this city Sunday evening. They talked rather freely and did not seem to realize their position and took the situation in a matter of fact way. Smith did most of the talking and where he was doubtful Decker filled in the story. Both are rather small, but Smith is a trifle larger than Decker. They were in their shirtsleeves, having no coats with them. Quite a large crowd had followed from the railroad station and watched through the windows of the police station and although Chief Davis reminded the lads of the fact it did not have any effect on them. When asked where they thought they would be sent as a result of their thefts, Smith said that he supposed he would be sent to the reform school, but did not seem to regard it as anything more than an excursion and Decker said he supposed he would be sent there too. The story told by Smith last night is substantially as follows:

Tells Story of Theft.

"I, with Floyd Wilkinson, 11 years of age, and Herman Brunk had intended to go to Quincy on a freight train Sunday to visit at the Old Soldiers' home and return home on a freight. I met Decker Sunday afternoon and about 5 o'clock we went to the vacant lot and took the horse and buggy owned by Al Renaker and also took a blanket and lantern from the rig of George Paul. We drove west on College street until we reached Kosciusko, when we turned back and drove to Alexander. Here we drove up to the barn of Lester Kennett and took a horse from his pasture and a saddle from his barn. We put the saddle on the horse and led him behind the buggy and returned to Jacksonville. When we reached the street car barns on East State street the last cars were coming into the barns and we turned north on Illinois avenue to Lafayette, driving to Swift's where we took a chicken coop." Here Decker said that their intention was to pick up scrap iron along the road, sell it and buy some chickens from which they expected to make some money.

Varied Experiences.

"Continuing Smith said that they camped along the road Sunday night and Monday morning stole a lumber wagon from a farm of S. A. Wagon hitting the two boys and they started back home but in going down a hill the horses became frightened and ran away. We jumped out of the wagon and when it hit a bridge at the bottom of a hill the wagon was broken. We returned to the farm, got the buggy which we had left in a cornfield and went to Bluffs. On the road we saw a man cutting corn in a field and we took his dinner and ate it. Monday night was spent in a straw stack we were awakened Tuesday morning by a farmer who was passing. The constable then came and took us on suspicion and we were locked up in the Bluffs jail. On the way to the jail Decker ran away, but was caught by some section men. We had only 5 cents and spent that for matches to build a fire."

Smith is a son of David Smith who lives on Doolin avenue. He said that this was the first time he was arrested. Decker has been in the local police courts a number of times, having been charged with stealing chickens from two or three parties and also of stealing a bicycle. It is probable that delinquent warrants will be secured for them and that they will be sent to the St. Charles School for Boys.

BAKER'S LONG DRIVE

not make a play for Collins at third. Collins scored and put Philadelphia ahead when Fletcher fumbled Murphy's grounder, the latter being safe. Davis hit swiftly to right and Baker scored, but Murphy was out trying to make third. Davis tried to steal and was out, Meyers to Doyle.

Herzog started New York's left chance by bunting a double to left. Lord squeezed Fletcher fly and Meyers grounded to Collins, who fumbled slightly, but got the ball in at first. Collins' error damaged on the smart rap sent him by Becker who batted for Mathewson. Herzog scoring and the batter being safe at first. But it was all over and Philadelphia's game a moment afterward, when Becker was out stealing, Lapp to Collins.

With probably the largest rent-list of any agency in a city of this size in Illinois, we have today but very few houses not rented. Our facilities for renting houses, and for collecting the rents, are better than yours can possibly be. Renters come to our office every day, and we cannot supply their demands.

Furthermore: They pay us when they would "stand you off." We have not lost a full month's rent on any one house during the last year. It will be money in your pocket to let us look after your rentals for you. We will be glad to have you come in and talk it over with us.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Interesting and Profitable Lectures
Given Tuesday at Session in Concord—Program at Murrayville Today.

The farmers of the Concord vicinity and their wives, sons and daughters, heard four excellent addresses at the Farmers' Institute, which was held at Concord yesterday. The attendance was gratifying and every one present seemed to appreciate the real worth and value of the gathering.

In the morning at 9:45 O. S. Fisher of Champaign spoke on "Soil Fertility and Permanent Agriculture," giving some splendid suggestions for soil improvement, and in the afternoon he spoke on "The Productive Capacity of Illinois Soil." At 2:30 o'clock Mrs. Margaret M. Banks of Chicago delivered an excellent address on "Co-operation in the Home." At the evening session Miss Mabel Carney of Normal gave her famous lecture entitled "County Community Building," following which was conducted an open discussion.

City People May Compete.
For some reason certain persons have gained the impression that the competition for prizes and premiums offered at the institute is open only to the people of the country. Residents of the city are given the same privileges as those of the rural districts and may compete for the excellent premiums which are offered. The merchants and business firms of the city have contributed liberally to the institute and some splendid cash prizes are offered. In addition to the premiums mentioned in the Journal recently, $28 is given by the Ayers National bank to be distributed as prizes on yellow corn.

SEEK MANDAMUS

Civil Service League Files Petition to Compel State Treasurer to Certify Names of Employees.

Springfield, Oct. 17.—Robert Catherwood, president and Herbert E. Fleming, secretary of the Chicago Civil Service League, have filed a petition in the supreme court asking leave to file a mandamus suit against Edward Mitchell, state treasurer, to compel him to certify the names of employees in his office that the commission may certify to the auditor that they are properly employed. The positions involved in the suit are Andrew Russell, assistant treasurer, the position of chief clerk, now vacant, Henry B. Leuhers, the cashier, and inheritance tax attorneys and Mrs. Annie Dickson, stenographer.

The suit they wish to file is similar to the action recently brought in the Sangamon circuit court against Mr. Mitchell, and the object in desiring it in the supreme court is that it may be tried at the same time as the mandamus suit brought by Secretary of State Rice against the auditor to compel him to pay his appointees without the pay roll being certified by the civil service commission.

James S. McLaughlin, state auditor, yesterday at noon filed his answer with the supreme court to the suit brought against him to compel the payment of the salaries of J. W. Gullett, Heckiah Williams and James C. Peak, and attacking the constitutionality of the county and state wide civil service laws, Attorney General Stead, Assistant Attorney General Joel C. Elice, and Edgar A. Bancroft represented the auditor. The answer denies that the three officers are mere clerks.

OPERATORS CHANGE POSITIONS.

J. E. Garvey of Elvston has taken position as third trick operator at the local Wabash station. R. F. Pincamon, formerly third trick operator, will go to Bloomington this morning to take a position with the Chicago & Alton railroad.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Annual Convention of Grand Lodge Opens in Springfield Armory With Many Delegates in Attendance.

Springfield, Oct. 17.—The annual convention of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Illinois opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon, following the opening session held at 10 o'clock in the morning when a program of speeches was given. There were about 1,000 knights in attendance, the sessions being held in the state armory.

Governor Deneen cannot be present to welcome the visitors on behalf of the state owing to his injured foot. The address, however, was given by C. J. Doyle, state fire marshal.

The response was by Hon. John J. Borwn of Vandalia. Mayor John S. Schnupp welcomed the delegates to Springfield on behalf of the city. In response to Mayor Schnupp's welcome address was made by John B. Vaughn of Carlinville, grand chancellor. The welcome address on behalf of the local Pythians was made by John S. Dempsey of this city, who acted as master of ceremonies during the morning session.

One of the pleasing numbers on the program was the humorous remarks made by "Bill" Bone, the humorist. Mr. Bone is a brother of Eugene E. Bone of this city, and connected with the Coyt Lyceum bureau.

Returning here on Thursday he will resume his trip toward the Pacific coast.

TEACHERS MEET.

Monthly Gathering Held Last Night at the Home of Supt. W. A. Furr

The monthly meeting of the teachers of the high school and the eighth grade was held last night at the home of Supt. W. A. Furr on Grove street. There was a full attendance and Superintendent Furr was the leader, the subject being "Individuality," by Thorndike of Columbia university. Mr. Furr gave a most excellent talk on the subject which was followed by a discussion from those present. It is doubtful if a more animated discussion has taken place among the teachers, all of whom had some thought on the subject. It is a source of especial pleasure to note the benefits accruing from the monthly gatherings.

A special feature of the evening was the piano numbers of Miss Edith Robinson and the vocal selections by Miss Mabel Mathews, both of whom pleased greatly. The social hour following the program was ended by the serving of palatable refreshments.

THREE KILLED IN FIGHT.

Trouble Over Peddling Whisky Said to Be Cause.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Special dispatches received here say that Troy and Elias Hatfield, two of the Hatfield family of feudists living near Fayetteville, W. Va., were killed to day and another man, Geremie, an Italian, is believed to have been killed.

The Hatfields are alleged to have accused Geremie with peddling whisky in territory that belonged to them. Geremie replied by firing four shots and wounding both. A running fight followed.

Passersby found the two brothers laying in the road. Elias was dead, but Troy was still alive and managed to articulate before he died:

"You don't need to hunt for the man who did this. He is dead too."

A search is being made for the body of Geremie. The spot where the fight began is not known, but it is believed that the brothers, after killing Geremie tried to drag themselves to town to have their wounds dressed and thus got away from the place where they killed the Italian.

MISSIONARY UNION

Semi-Annual Meeting Held at Grace Church—New Officers Chosen.

The semi-annual meeting of the Missionary Union was held Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of Grace M. E. church with a good attendance. Miss Hattie Phillips presided and Mrs. R. P. Joy served as secretary. The exercises began with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and then the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. R. H. Stevenson. The principal talk of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Lindsay of Springfield, who told of the work conducted by the Missionary Union in the capital city. Mrs. Lindsay was one of those who organized the union twenty-one years ago and told in a very interesting way of the lines of work followed and of what had been accomplished in years gone by. The union now has a membership of over three thousand and has done much in aiding the establishment of the Springfield Y. W. C. A. with its membership of 1,800. The whole address was one of value. Mrs. J. N. Ward and Mrs. Williamson made brief and helpful addresses and Mrs. J. A. Parsons presented the cause of local option. Misses Lena Hopper and Stella Shuff added to the pleasure of the hour with a vocal duet. The nominating committee reported as follows:

President—Mrs. C. C. Cochran.
First vice president—Miss Mary Thiberry.
Second vice president—Mrs. A. B. Williamson.
Secretary—Mrs. Albert Melcalf.
Treasurer—Mrs. A. P. Vasconcellos.

The session concluded with a delightful social hour.

IMPROVEMENTS IN PLANT.

A. F. Franks, who has the controlling interest in the L. S. Kent-McCartay Cigar company, is making some needed and important improvements in the building. The office has been painted and overhauled and the packing and stock rooms have also been improved. At present a number of workmen are busy remodeling the east side of the building, which when finished will be used for a packing room. This will be opened into the present packing room, making this department of the factory in one large room. The room over the packers will be used by the strippers who have heretofore used the basement. This change will make only one foreman necessary while under the old plan there were two foremen. Mr. Franks will also install a number of dustproof lockers, in which the cigars and boxes will be kept.

Hoven, pastor of the Church of the Annunciation at Carlinville, and Rev. Father Francis H. Zabel, pastor of St. Joseph's church at Dunker Hill, was celebrated in this city to day, with about one hundred priests of the diocese of Alton in attendance. Solemn high mass was celebrated at 10:30 a. m. at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, with Rev. Father Zabel as celebrant. A reception followed at the rectory of the church and a dinner at the New Leland hotel.

Criminal Laws in U. S. States so Lightly Administered That Murderers Escape.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 17.—Quoting President Taft as saying that "The administration of criminal law in this country is a disgrace to civilization," Judge C. A. De Courcy, of Lawrence, Mass., justice of the superior court of Massachusetts, before the American Prison association tonight pointed out that the United States was conspicuous for the great number of unpunished murderers.

"The defense of insanity, the limitation of the power of judges and the character of testimony allowed to be introduced in behalf of the defendant, were some of the evils
which, he said, ought to be rectified."

"The number of homicides in this country for 1910 was 8,975—an increase of nearly 900 over the number in 1909; yet but one in 80 was capitally punished in 1910 as against one in 74 during the year preceding," said Judge De Courcy.

"It is said that in 1896 for each million of the population there were 118 homicides in the United States;
in Italy less than 15; in Canada less than 13; in Great Britain less than 9; in Germany less than 5."

"In the last year in London, with a population of seven millions, there were but nineteen cases of murder.
Of the nineteen murderers five committed suicide. All of the others except four were arrested and either convicted and executed or committed to the insane asylum."

"In New York city, 119 cases of homicide were investigated by the grand jury during the last year, but only 45 convictions resulted. Chicago reports 202 homicides were committed in that city during the last year. Only one of the offenders was hanged; fifteen were sent to the penitentiary and the others were set free. In Louisville, with a population of 224,000, during the last year there were 47 cases of homicide and not a single murderer was hanged. In Alabama for the two years ending September 30, 1910, 630 cases of homicide were disposed of and the death penalty was imposed in but 27 cases. In North Carolina in the last year there were 141 homicides, and in Ohio 191, and in each an absurdly small number capitally punished. The report of the attorney general of Texas states
that there were 1,048 indictments for murder in that state during the years 1909 and 1910 and undoubtedly a large number of homicides in addition for which no indictment was found."

"In Alabama a conviction for stealing hides was recently set aside because the indictment failed to state whether they were mule, cow, goat or sheep hides. And indictments were dismissed because father was spelled farther (in South Carolina); because the letter 'I' was omitted in spelling malice (in Alabama); Judge De Courcy then suggested some criminal law reforms which included simplified forms of indictments, changes in the selections of juries and in the rules governing pleadings."

SPENT PLEASANT DAY.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bourn, north of the city, entertained a number of friends Sunday in a very pleasant manner. The entire company was conveyed in a big wagon
to the Sunday school at Shiloh church and upon their return a sumptuous dinner was served by Mrs. Bourn and her daughters, Misses May and Marie, who are known for their culinary ability.
After dinner music was enjoyed,
both vocal and instrumental, and various games were played. Before the guests departed a group picture was taken. Among those present were Mrs. Lorena Oldfield and Mrs.
Heilrich of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs.
A. N. Hall and Fred Hall of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bourn of Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Bourn of Virginia, Claude Servoss of

GOLD DUST

makes pot and pan
spick and span

Soap and muscle won't clean
your pots and pans properly
—thoroughly.

Ordinary washing of cooking utensils passes over whole hidden nests of little wigglers
—commonly called germs.

Gold Dust is a sanitary washing powder that not only removes the visible dirt and grease, but digs deep after every trace of germ life—sterilizes
pots, pans, pails and kettles—leaving them clean, wholesome, safe.

Shake a little Gold Dust in your dish-water, and see the startling results.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size
and large packages. The large package means
greater economy.

Delegates From Eight Counties Will Assemble on Occasion of Fifth Annual Meeting—Program For Public to be Held in Grand Opera House This Afternoon.

With a bright day the executive committees of the local lodges are anticipating an attendance of 1,000
delegates on the occasion of the fifth annual meeting of the Central Illinois Odd Fellows' association, which comprises the counties of Morgan,
Greene, Cass, Pike, Scott, Fulton,
Jersey and Schuyler.

With the exception of the year
1909 the association has always held its meetings in Jacksonville and all have been well pleased with the many courtesies extended. The members of both lodges are making a special effort at this time to leave no stone unturned in welcoming the hundreds who will be guests in Jacksonville today, and not only the members of the lodges but all citizens are urged to extend the hearty handshake to the visitors. A citizen was expressing himself last night that he thought it would be a good thing if something might be done toward securing the meeting for Jacksonville each year, as it is most centrally located and is the largest city in the combination of counties. It is not at all unlikely that such a movement will be advanced at the business session, which will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon at the Odd Fellows hall on West State street.

The local committees have been very busy the last few days making arrangements. They have asked the merchants to decorate their places of business and to assist in every way toward the entertainment of the delegates. Every member of the order is requested to wear a badge
during the day, which can be procured at headquarters. At the business session each lodge is requested to send a delegate.

Rebekah lodge No. 625 will serve meals on this occasion in the store
room near Armory hall and lunch
will be served at Odd Fellows hall
after the night meeting. Arrangements have been made to have the hall opened all night, so that all delegates who want to make early morning trains can do so.

Afternoon Program.
The program will commence at 2
o'clock in the Grand Opera house,
which will be opened to the public.
Judge Francis E. Baldwin will preside over the meeting and the following interesting program has been arranged:

Song—I. O. O. F. quartette.
Address of Welcome—By the chairman.

Response—W. A. Hubbard, deputy grand master.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Pierson Hartmann, Illinois Woman's college.

Address, "The Keys and the Links"—Rev. Hy. S. Alkire, pastor
Brooklyn M. E. church.

Violin solo—Prof. Walter D. Stafford, Peoria Musical college. Miss Dean Obermeyer, accompanist.

Address—Rev. Fredric J. Baylis,
pastor M. P. church, Chapin.
Song—I. O. O. F. quartette.

Program of Degree Work.
The degree work will take place in Armory hall commencing at 7 o'clock. This work will be witnessed only by members of the organization. A prize of $10 is being offered to the team that will put on the best work. It had been the original intention to have the second degree conferred by Franklin lodge No. 121, but that lodge will not be able to send a team so their places will be filled by a degree team from Illini lodge No. 4, of which P. E. Mc-Dougall is captain. Illini staff, however, will not compete for the prize.

The following is the evening program:
7:00. Opening of Lodge—Under auspices of Urania lodge No. 243.
7:30. Conferring Initiatory Degree—Murrayville lodge No. 415, Murrayville.
8:45. Conferring First Degree—
Mercedosa lodge No. 962, Mercedosa.
10:00. Conferring Second Degree
—Illini lodge No. 4, Jacksonville.

the new delicate shades from $8.50
to $27.50. Alteration free. At Her-man's.

READY FOR TRIAL.

Clarence Funk Makes Answer to Charge of Alienation of Affection
Made Against Him.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Clarence S.
Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company, who was sued for $25,000 by John Henning on the charge that he had alienated the affections of Henning's wife, today filed an answer in the circuit court denying Henning's allegations. The plea in part reads:

"The defendant, Clarence S.
Funk, comes and defends the wrong
and injury and says that he is not guilty of the said supposed grievances laid to his charge or any or either of them, in manner and form
as the plaintiff has above theof
complained against him."

Attorneys, Bancroft and Stephens, counsel for Mr. Funk, made public a copy of a letter sent to Henning's attorney, in which they propose that both sides stipulate for an immediate jury trial.

"It is hardly necessary to point out that a plaintiff in such a case—if the suit is brought in good faith with the intention of trying it and in the hope of getting a judgment—
can desire nothing so much as an early hearing," the letter states.

"In addition there is a peculiar reason why your client—again assuming good faith—should welcome
such a proposition, in the opportunity it would afford him of dispelling the suspicion which, as you must have observed, is quite general that he is a mere tool used by others for a base purpose."

No answer was received tonight.

NOTES FROM EAST

Observations of a Journal Man Who Traveled Over a Portion of the East Part of Morgan County.

Always one finds something interesting in traveling over the noble country in which we live and the east part is no exception. Going out on Hardin avenue and turning east down under the C. & A. bridge Oak Lawn Retreat is soon reached and it looks beautiful as ever amid its grand forest trees mingled with various evergreens and others from the nursery. It is indeed a retreat well named.

Back of this resides one of Morgan county's sturdy farmers and up-right citizens, J. R. Robinson, better known among his friends as plain "Jack." Had he turned his attention to pugilistic affairs instead of sensibly tilling the soil he would have made a match for almost any heavyweight whom he might meet, but he has no aspirations that way and asks to be permitted to pursue the even tenor of his way, attending strictly to his own business and letting others do the same.

A. M. Starr, the milkman, is a resident not far away and still nearer the Q bridge is the home of Charles H. Lewis, a good farmer and respected citizen. Mr. Lewis was found busily engaged in drilling wheat assisted by his brother, Fred Lewis, also a good farmer and an upright man who knows much about tilling the soil. J. E. Rawlings has a very comfortable and commodious home at the place where the road has a southward fork. Mr. Rawlings is one of the wide awake men who understand the science of farming and know how to apply their knowledge.

John Vasey and H. E. Rinaker are names familiar to many along that way and then we reach the homes of Frank Waltman and Patrick Dowling, both men who have grown up on the farm and know how to handle land and get the most out of it. They have pleasant homes and good housekeepers in them and they have all reason to be satisfied with their lot in life east of the city.

One of the moving spirits in the breeding of good horses is A. D. Arnold and what he doesn't know about the noble animal called the best friend of man it would be hard to name. Mr. Arnold takes a delight in producing good horses and training them for use. His stock farm is widely known and his word is his best property for it is good and all who have dealings with him know it well.

Soon the course is southward and the places of Edgar Vasey and W. T. Scott are passed. Mr. Scott has a fine residence and the noted horse barn which will shelter so many animals and he has a home too of which he has good reason to be proud. His good wife is lady noted for her fine housekeeping and in addition for literary and dramatic abilities of no common order, as her efforts at the gatherings of the club to which she belongs have abundantly proved.

Down the hill and over the little creek the traveler goes and passes through some fine scenery as he ascends the hill opposite and then he comes to a place which surpasses the great majority of farm dwellings. It is the Cain homestead and the man who built it, the late John Cain, was a man of great ability and strictest integrity. He was widely known and respected as a man who knew how to succeed and treat everybody right at the same time and the sons he left behind him are well keeping up the reputation of the father who left what is rather to be chosen than great riches, a good name.

Other people residing in that vicinity are C. A. Tomlinson, H. W. Wright, Sterling Trumbo and then we come to another name so widely known in that neighborhood, that of Magill. Charles and Lloyd Magill are men whom it is a pleasure to know and they are all right. They are well fixed in the things of this world and are men who know how to enjoy life all right.

A. L. Coker is another good citizen. Nor would we forget Clyde Cox, C. L. Caldwell and several more who are men of the right stamp. "N. W. Lundus" has a good home and is well fixed. His orchard is a fine thing to look upon and he will have lots of good winter apples to sell to those who are so fortunate as to invest in his fruit. We wouldn't go by the homes of George Sheppard and Isaac Wood by any means as there are some more men who are good citizens and men who are respected by their neighbors who know them best. On number six are two men named Davis, S. E. and H. L., and both are men it will do to tie to if you are in business.

We go south again and pass the fine farm and home of E. M. Tindal who is certainly well fixed when it comes to farm and residence. While a little farther on is the home of a progressive, wide awake citizen, Frank Winkins who can claim the regard of all his neighbors, for they know him to be a reliable man. A little beyond his house they are building a new bridge and there is a sign up to that effect, but we have all heard the old saying that it is better to be born lucky than rich, for as the scribe was nearing the place the mail man passed along and it is necessary to fix things so he can get over and the newspaper man followed immediately after and wants to thank the men at work for their courteous treatment.

Another good man on number six is Joseph De Prates who is hard at work providing for his family and rearing one that will be a credit to him and his good wife.

Another very good name in that vicinity is that of Stubbfield and there are several representatives of it. Thomas, P. M. and Fred are all men of integrity and well liked by a host of friends. Their name is a synonym for honor and uprightness and they are prosperous in the affairs of life.

Here is another man who can tell you lots about a horse that man I, Fred R. Craven and the nags he ## Does Jacksonville Want the Saloon?

Answer No. 1.
(From the Viewpoint of a City Official.)

Some people are inclined to belittle the local option law because it is not automatic in its operation, because it does not work miracles in the prevention of a traffic that in its ramifications is as insidious and persistent as the insensibility of human kind can make it.

The value of the local option law as a salutary enactment, should not be brought into question simply because humanity errs in accomplishing its strict enforcement. Neither should a minority in office, be held responsible for the principles of a majority out of office, to the extent of denying the good of the principle itself. The fault in such a case is not with the local option law.

If the ballot-registered-will of the people is to be carried out there must be a willingness of public officials to co-operate therewith. Not one public official, nor two nor three can accomplish this; but power-trusted-officials, in their collective capacity and through their executive co-operation, can accomplish it and will accomplish it, if the has owned and exhibited in times past would make the eyes of a lover of good horse flesh turn green with envy. Charles Wood is a man who has done his share in adding to the welfare of the human race. He is a farmer and a man who can always be relied upon by any one who has anything in the way of business in Charles' line. His home is well appointed and all right and he has a good housekeeper in it. He was leading a lot of oats for market when called on and he has a lot which will make him a good bit of money.

Leonard Wood lives not far away as do a good many other good citizens and they are men calculated to build up a community and going still farther eastward we come to the home of a fine man and an enterprising citizen, W. H. Moseley, who you know is rather small in stature and yet of him it may be said, as did the Irishman remark about his pet pig, "It is little, but O, my!"

There are larger men in the world than Mr. Moseley, but if he has patience he will get there yet, in spite of being no larger than he is. Turning back and northward, the home of E. T. Sample is found and it, too, is a place good to meet while passing through the land. The owner is a man whom you will know where to find if you have any dealings with him, for he is upright and honorable. C. E. Davis has a fine home and the old place is used as a storehouse for all sorts of implements and it is a good investment, since weather does more harm to machinery than wear and tear.

H. C. Stewart has a beautiful home and all about it that is calculated to make life agreeable. On the other side of the road is a two story habitation that was abandoned for the one now occupied and it is better than many places which are inhabited. A. H. Weiborn is another successful farmer, as is well demonstrated by the fine home he enjoys and the good things about it. W. W. Dyer lives not far from him, while on another mail box is the name of George M. Graff, a man who has made for himself a name which will live long after him. He, too, is a man on whom you may always depend.

A little farther to the north and seen on the mail box is the name Stevenson and we pause to think of the good man who went to his long home only a short time ago. He, too, left a good name by which people may remember him and his sons may well be proud to have the ability to remember such a father. Irvin, Thomas and Fred are all about the county now and they are men known and honored by a large circle of friends. Across the road is the new home of Frank E. Drury, while a loud noise in the vicinity of the barn disclosed the fact that the men are putting up ensilage. E. S. Sinclair was busy sowing wheat, or rather drilling it and he expected to finish that same day and from the appearance of the land and the careful manner of his work he ought to have a good crop.

J. E. Young has a fine home in which he may well take pride; while the same may be said of P. W. Waters, Frank Danneberger and J. W. Rawlings, who are very comfortably fixed as regards the necessities and even luxuries of this life. Marcus Hulet is an honored name in the east part of the county. All knew what kind of a man his father was and Marcus is a chip from the old block surely and that is a compliment enough for one. V. B. Rogge is also a man whom you can tie to without fearing any bad results. The scribe will not forget to name H. J. Rice, James Cunningham, E. M. Walter, John Holley, W. W. Crabtree all men well and favorably known.

This Space Reserved By Local Option Committee

DOES JACKSONVILLE WANT THE SALOON? This question has been propounded by the Anti-Saloon press committee to the several eminent representatives of Jacksonville's vital interests—court, city office, law, store, bank, hospital, church, school and home—and a judge, city official, lawyer, merchant, banker, teacher, doctor, preacher and mother have replied. These answers will be published in the morning and evening papers. Get both papers and preserve the entire series.

people themselves will only insist that it be done.

The local option law has been on trial in Jacksonville for four years. During that period there has never been a majority of the public officials that were in sympathy with its provisions. In national and state affairs a party is not held responsible unless it has the power to enact and execute. The friends of local option have never held the reins of power since Jacksonville became dry.

The dictum that a nation cannot exist half slave and half free is applicable to a community. It cannot exist properly half dry and half wet. The law has been tested in Jacksonville under very adverse conditions. This is not an apology, but merely a statement of fact to call to mind how much greater showing might have been made had the majority of power-trusted-officials been of one mind.

Why should a community that has stamped out the open saloon, with its train of evil consequences, become faint-hearted because in four short years this octopus-like disease has not suffered complete eradication?

Law enforcement is the easiest thing in the world to talk about, but its actual execution is accomplished only with the greatest determination on the part of the individuals entrusted therewith supported by expressed approval of the people, protected thereby.

The vigorous voice of the press, the forceful appeal from platform and pulpit, the untiring efforts and energies of a competent corps of organized workers is the three-fold order, in politics and in the social order. In the constant assertion of the power of such a trinity, lies the hope of all real reform. When the exercise of this influence is spasmodic the reform loses ground. Such a trinity can win in the campaign now on in Jacksonville. Without this co-operation the issue is in doubt.

The local option standard planted in Jacksonville four years ago must not be hauled down. The forces that believed it was right to raise the banner then, must rally now. To lower such colors will be a body blow to our intelligence, our culture, our churches, our homes, our business interests and our self respect.

The law must be upheld, its value as an asset in the present welfare and future progress of our community must again be vindicated at the ballot box. The difficulties connected with its strict enforcement will become better understood and easier solved as the determination of the people is made more plain and more insistent.

The duty of the citizenship of this community is clear. In response to the spirit of Christian culture and liberal education, to the widely expressed sentiment of the agricultural classes upon whom we are so dependent for material prosperity, in response to the reputation we have gained abroad for our schools and colleges let us meet squarely and courageously our obligation. Let the slogan "Keep Jacksonville Dry," ring out in every precinct from now until election day as a protection to son and daughter, brother and sister, father and mother, home and country.

Will the return of the open saloon mean the enforcement of the law in the relation thereto? Has such a regime been characteristic of the saloon when it has been permitted to flourish in the past? Judge the future by the past and of the lesser of two evils always choose the less.

Vote dry.

Don't Kindle A Fire Every Morning This Winter

Ever get up on a cold morning and find the fire in your Base Burner all dead around the edges—a dim red spot of fire in the center?

The house was chilly, and it was a mighty disagreeable job to get up a good fire with only a few live coals to start it with.

You will never have any trouble like that with a FAVORITE BASE BURNER. The Favorite will hold fire longer and more evenly than any other Base Burner made. It will keep the temperature in your home even, day and night. When you wake in the morning your house will be as warm as when you went to bed.

You'll find the reason in the flues and perfect fitting of the Favorite. Every door, joint and frame is paper tight. The Favorite has held fire continuously for five successive days and nights without going out. Let us explain why the Favorite will save you full one-half in fuel bills and throw out more heat.

Grain Letter.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Wheat—After an easier market based on fine weather and large receipts in the northwest, as well as disappointing cables and generally favorable crop summary, the market turned strong, and closed somewhat excited. Scattered local longs sold rather freely, but the market received good support from Lichstein brokers. Further sales of wheat from store were reported, lending support to the belief that interior millers will be compelled to buy freely at terminal markets. Big stocks are still the chief bear influence, but the cash situation is steadily hardening and continued buying by millers is very important bull influence. While stocks are too large to permit sensational advance, without a good many setbacks it looks as though policy of buying December on hard spots would be profitable.

Corn—Corn acted heavy and dull, influenced by better weather and an improved forecast. Country offerings continue fairly liberal and there is little outside speculative interest. Strength in wheat toward the close helped corn materially. The weather is the most important factor, but receipts are heavy and with reasonably good weather a large movement can be expected during the next two months.

Oats—Oats were heavy and really quite weak at times. Scattered longs have been few sellers. The market is being influenced largely by other grains. The strength in wheat caused a closing rally. We feel that current oat prices discount all the bull features of the situation at least for the immediate future.

Provisions—Trade featureless. Quality of hogs is poor. There has been a slight loss in prices. Drovers report fresh meat trade fair. Market appears a bit oversold, but there is little outside interest.
